c) damages caused by disruptions, interruptions or unavailability of the Service caused by force majeure,

d) damages caused or being the result of disobeying the rules of the Regulations,

e) damages resulting from defectiveness or incompatibility of the device used by the User, to the extent that the User has been instructed on the technical conditions of access to the Website or the content available through it,

f) the consequences resulting from the decision of the office competent to register the vehicle, to the extent that NETGO can not bear the blame for the content of the decision.

4. NETGO indicates that the date of performance of the Agreement, and in particular delivery of the digital vignette to the User, depends on the decision of the office competent to register the vehicle in the electronic toll collection system for which NETGO is not liable and therefore to the extent that NETGO can not bear the blame for delay of its issue.

5. The exemption of NETGO from liability for damage specified in the Regulations takes place within the scope and in accordance with the provisions of the Act dated on 23rd April 1964, the Civil Code (Journal of Laws of 2018, position 1025 with further amendments) and the provisions of Chapter 3 of the Act of 18th July 2002, on provision of electronic services (Journal of Laws of 2002, No. 144, position 1204, with further amendments).
6. NETGO provides the User with the digital content or the digital service immediately after conclusion of the contract, unless the parties have agreed otherwise.
7. The digital content is considered delivered when the digital content or the means that allows access to the digital content or downloading the digital content have been made available to the User or a physical or virtual device that the User has chosen for this purpose, or when the User or such device, have accessed it.
8. The digital service is considered delivered when the User or a physical or virtual device that the User has selected for this purpose has accessed it.
9. The User may withdraw from the contract without requesting the delivery of the digital content or the digital service if:
 - a) the NETGO's statement or circumstances clearly indicate that the digital content or the digital service will not be provided or
 - b) the User and NETGO agreed or it is clear from the circumstances of the conclusion of the contract that the specified date of delivery of the digital content or digital service was of significant importance to the User, and NETGO did not deliver them within the given time limit.
10. NETGO is liable for the lack of conformity of the digital content or the digital service with the contract delivered at a single time or in parts, which existed at the time of delivery and became apparent within two years from that time. The lack of conformity of the digital content or digital service with the contract, which becomes apparent within one year from the delivery of the digital content or digital service, shall be presumed to have existed at the time of delivery.
11. The presumptions specified in position 10 do not apply if:
 - a) the User's digital environment is not compatible with the technical requirements of which the User has been informed by NETGO in a clear and understandable manner before concluding the contract;
 - b) the User, who, before concluding the contract, has been informed in a clear and understandable way about the obligation to cooperate with NETGO, to a reasonable extent and using the least onerous technical means for the User, in order to determine whether the lack of conformity of the digital content or the digital service with the contract in due time results from of the characteristics of the User's digital environment, does not perform the obligation.

NETGO processes personal data for the purpose of executing a contract to which the person whose data are processed is a party, or to take actions at the request of the data subject before concluding the contract (Article 6 par. 1 letter b of the GDPR).

In particular situations, NETGO may process personal data due to the need to comply with legal obligations to which NETGO is subject (Article 6 par. 1 letter c of the GDPR), or the processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of the data subject or another natural person (Article 6 par. 1 letter d of the GDPR), or processing is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by NETGO (Article 6 par. 1 letter f of the GDPR), in particular, for the purpose related to:

- a) marketing of products and services of NETGO,
- b) monitoring and improvement of the quality of services provided by NETGO, including monitoring of telephone conversations and meetings, carrying out customer satisfaction surveys of services provided,
- c) if applicable, the conduct of disputable proceedings, as well as proceedings before public authorities and other proceedings, including carrying on enquiry and defence against claims.
- d) improving the quality of services, which includes examining traffic on the website.
- e) for statistical purposes and for the purposes of internal marketing analysis, which does not have legal effects on the data subject or similarly does not significantly affect them.

In all other situations, personal data are processed solely on the basis of the consent granted for the purpose specified in its content (Article 6 par. 1 letter a of the GDPR).

IV. Recipients of the data

NETGO discloses or may disclose personal data to the following recipients or categories of recipients, in particular to:

- a) public authorities and relevant state offices, competent to process applications and to register the vehicle in the electronic toll collection system;
- b) entities that participate in the processes necessary to perform contracts concluded with clients, including banks, credit card operators, electronic and online payment agents,
- c) entities which support NETGO in business processes, including in particular entities processing personal data for NETGO (so-called data processors), inter alia:
 - hosting companies,
 - legal services and accounting services,
 - companies and external entities carrying out processes which are a part of the activities necessary to conclude the contract with the client.

V. Time of data processing

The User's personal data, including sensitive data provided on the basis of consent, are processed by NETGO for the time necessary to achieve the objectives indicated in point III, that is, until the contract is concluded. After that period, NETGO may process the User's data for a period of time and to the extent specified by law or for the pursuit of the legitimate interest of the data controller as in point. 3, however, no longer than 6 years since their collection.

Insensitive data processed on the basis of separate consent shall be kept until the consent is withdrawn.

VI. The rights of the data subjects

NETGO guarantees all Users exercising the data subject rights granted by the GDPR, including in particular:

1. the right to access the personal data;
2. the right to request correction of the personal data which are incorrect and the right to request supplementing of the incomplete personal data,
3. the right to request erasure of the personal data ("the right to be forgotten"), when:
 - a) the personal data are no longer necessary for the purposes for which they have been collected or otherwise processed;
 - b) the data subject has withdrawn the consent on which the processing is based and there is no other legal ground for their processing;
 - c) the data subject objects to the processing;
 - d) the personal data have been unlawfully processed;
 - e) the personal data have to be erased for compliance with a legal obligation provided by law;
 - f) the personal data have been collected in relation to providing the offer of information society services.
4. the right to request restriction of processing of the personal data when:
 - a) the data subject challenges correctness of the personal data;
 - b) the processing is unlawful and the data subject opposes to erasure of the personal data, requesting to limit their use instead;
 - c) the controller no longer needs the personal data for processing but it is necessary for the data subject to establish an enquiry or defend their claims;
 - d) the data subject has objected to the processing – pending determination of whether the legitimate grounds on the part of the controller take precedence over the grounds of objection.
5. the right to transfer personal data if:
 - a) the processing takes place on the basis of consent or on the basis of a contract, and
 - b) the processing is automated.
6. the right to object to the processing of the personal data, if there are reasons related to the User's special situation and the processing results from indispensability for the purposes resulting from legally justified interests pursued by the controller.

VII. Withdrawal of consent to data processing

To the extent of the User's consent to processing of their personal data, the client is entitled to withdraw the consent at any time. The withdrawal takes place without affecting the legality of the processing which was carried out on the basis of the consent prior to its withdrawal.

VIII. The right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority

In any situation, when the client considers that NETGO processes personal data contrary to the provisions of the GDPR, the client has the right to lodge a complaint with the appropriate supervisory authority.

IX. Transfer of personal data to countries outside the European Economic Area

NETGO may transfer personal data to international organizations and countries outside the European Economic Area for which the Commission has not found an adequate level of protection of personal data, in particular to the USA. The transfer of data takes place on the basis of standard contractual clauses agreed with the recipient, the content of which has been adopted by the European Commission and ensures the highest standards of personal data protection applied on the market. The User has the right to obtain a copy of the data transferred by NETGO.

X. Obligation to provide personal data

Providing personal data is entirely voluntary. Providing data is a condition for concluding a contract with NETGO or it is necessary to achieve the objectives arising from the legitimate interests of NETGO. Failure to provide all the data will prevent conclusion and execution of the indicated contract.

XI. Profiling

Personal data of the User are not the subject to profiling.

§ 6. Cookie policy

1. This policy defines the rules for storing information and accessing information already stored (cookies and other technologies including local storage) by NETGO spółka z ograniczoną odpowiedzialnością (LLC LP) SP Z O.O. with its registered office in Katowice, ul. Graniczna 29, 40-017, Katowice, NIP: 9542755521, REGON: 361571148, entered by the Katowice-Wschód District Court in Katowice, 8th Commercial Division, under the number KRS 0000559238 in the telecommunication device of the end user (computer, smartphone, tablet) of the website and its sub-pages.

2. Cookies are small text files created by a web server, stored on the user's end device. Cookies, specifically the information stored in them, are read primarily by the server that created them. The purpose of saving cookies is to store the website user's data in the browser – saving the user's information, including the frequency of the user's visits to the website. Local storage files are used to facilitate the use of registration forms on the website because they save the data entered into the registration forms. Local storage files may store personal data. The data can be accessed only by the service which generated cookies or the local storage files. The most important cookies are:
 - a) Native cookie for PHP applications – this cookie is used to collect and recognize a unique user session ID in order to manage the user's session on the website. The cookie is deleted when the user closes all the browser windows.
 - b) Cookie used to collect the user's language preferences in order to display content in that collected language during the user's future visits to the website.
 - c) Cookies installed by Google Analytics:
 - The cookie is used to calculate data such as: visitors, sessions, campaign and to track site usage for the site analytics report. The information stored by the cookie is anonymous as the cookie assigns a randomly generated number to identify each visitor.
 - The cookie is used to collect information about how visitors use the website. The cookie is required to compile an analytical report on the website's performance. The data includes the number of visitors, where they come from, the website pages visited in an anonymous form
 - d) Cookies installed by Google Universal Analytics to reduce the number of requests to limit data storage on high traffic websites.
 - e) Cookie installed by Yadex Metrica – this cookie is used to calculate data such as: visitors, sessions, campaign and to track site usage in the website analytics report. The information stored by the cookie is anonymous as the cookie assigns a randomly generated number to identify each visit.
3. NETGO uses cookies and other technologies for statistical purposes to calculate the number of visits of users per page and to optimally match the content of the website to users' preferences and easier usage of the website by users.
4. NETGO website uses session cookies that are deleted immediately after leaving the website or its sub-pages by the user, as well as persistent cookies, which are stored on the user's end device, and which are not automatically removed after the end of the session. Local storage files are generally not automatically deleted and they are saved in the user's browser memory.

5. A user who does not want cookies and files from other technologies to be stored in the browser's memory should:
 - a) clear the browser's memory,
 - b) disable, in the browser settings, the option of saving cookies and files from other technologies, or specify the time after which cookies are automatically removed from the browser's memory. Preventing the saving of cookies completely may significantly impede use of some websites.

§ 7. Withdrawal from the Agreement

1. The user, being a consumer, who has concluded an Agreement with the NETGO for provision of registration of a digital vignette may withdraw from it within 14 days without giving any reason and without incurring costs.
2. If the User withdraws from the Agreement, it is considered void.
3. If the User made a statement on withdrawal from the Agreement before NETGO accepted the User's offer, the offer ceases to be binding.
4. The period of withdrawal from the Agreement starts from the date of executing the Agreement, and in other cases from the date of conclusion of the Agreement.
5. The User may withdraw from the Agreement by submitting a statement of withdrawal from the Agreement to NETGO. The statement may be submitted on the form, a template of which is included in Annex No. 1 to the Regulations, but it is not mandatory.
6. To meet the deadline of withdrawal, it is enough to send a statement before the expiry date of the period by post to the address of the NETGO office or by e-mail to the address support@vignette.express
7. NETGO confirms the User receiving the withdrawal from the Agreement by an e-mail.
8. NETGO shall immediately, but not later than within 14 days from the date of receiving the statement sent by the User – consumer on withdrawal from the Agreement, return the User all payments made by them.
9. NETGO returns the payment using the same method of payment as the one used by the User, unless the User has explicitly agreed to a different method of return, which does not involve any costs for them including the costs of delivery. NETGO may withhold the reimbursement of payments received from the consumer until the returned goods

- are received or until the User provides proof of their return, depending on which event occurs first.
10. The provisions of the Regulations regarding the consumer apply to a natural person concluding a contract directly related to their business activity, when the content of this contract shows that it does not have a professional character for that person, resulting in particular from the subject of their business activity, made available on the basis of provisions on the Central Register and Information on Business.
 11. If the consumer exercises the right to withdraw from the contract after the consumer requests the performance of the service, the provision of which is to begin before the expiry of the deadline for withdrawing from the distance contract, the consumer is obliged to pay for the services provided until the withdrawal from the contract. The amount of payment is calculated in proportion to the scope of the service provided, taking into account the price or remuneration agreed in the contract.
 12. In the case of withdrawal from the contract for the supply of the digital content or the digital service, the User is obliged to stop using this digital content or the digital service and making it available to third parties.
 13. In the case of withdrawal from the contract, NETGO may prevent the User from further using the digital content or digital service, in particular by preventing them from accessing the digital content or the digital service or blocking the User's account in this scope.
 14. The right to withdraw from the contract is not entitled to the User in relation to the contracts:
 - a) for provision of services for which the User is obliged to pay the price, if the entrepreneur has fully performed the service with the clear and prior consent of the User, who was informed before the commencement of the service that after the performance of the service by NETGO they would lose the right to withdraw from the contract, and the information was acknowledged;
 - b) for the delivery of digital content not delivered on a tangible carrier, for which the User is obliged to pay the price, if the entrepreneur commenced the service with the clear and prior consent of the User, who was informed before the start of the service that after the performance of the service by the entrepreneur they would lose the right to withdraw from the contract, and acknowledged it, and the entrepreneur provided the User with a confirmation.

§ 8. Invoices

1. At the User's request, NETGO issues an invoice in connection with the performance of the Agreement and sends it to the e-mail address indicated by the User.
2. The User declares to agree to issuing an electronic invoice by NETGO in accordance with art. 106n par. 1 of the Act of 11th March 2004 on Value Added Tax (Journal of Laws of 2017, position 1221, with further amendments).

§ 9. Complaints and final provisions

1. The User may submit complaints about services provided by NETGO, as per the Agreement, by:
 - a) posting a letter to the following address: NETGO spółka z ograniczoną odpowiedzialnością (LLC LP) SP Z O.O. with its registered office in Katowice, ul. Graniczna 29, 40-017, Katowice,
 - b) sending an email to - support@vignette.express,
 - c) phone to the number +44 2031 293 603
2. NETGO deals with the complaint within 14 days since its delivery and sends the response to the address of the sender – User. NETGO reserves the right to send a request to the person lodging the complaint in order to clarify the relevant circumstances regarding the complaint. The deadline for considering the complaint may be extended accordingly, due to the waiting time for the User's response.
3. The Service, together with the constituting elements, including graphic, multimedia, text files and source code of the programs, are subject to the exclusive rights of NETGO. Without the consent of NETGO, it is forbidden to copy, reproduce or to use the components of the website in any other way in a manner inconsistent with its aim or purpose.
4. When using the Service, it is forbidden for Users and Guests to use software that harms or may cause potentially damage to NETGO or other Users, or violate their rights, in particular, it is prohibited to use worms, spyware, viruses, etc..
5. NETGO is entitled to change the Regulations for important reasons at any time, in

- particular when changes are due to technical or legal reasons. NETGO will inform the Users about the introduced changes by presenting information about the changes on the Service, publication of the updated text of the Regulations and sending messages about changes to the Regulations to the Users' e-mail addresses. Changes to the Regulations come into force within 14 days from the date of posting the information about them on the Service along with the updated text of the Regulations. The existing provisions shall apply to the Agreements concluded before the date of the update.
6. Polish law is the law applicable to relations arising from the Agreement. Disputes arising from the Agreement are subject to the jurisdiction of Polish common courts. The choice of Polish law does not exclude the protection granted to Users by mandatory provisions in the country where the User has their habitual residence.
 7. The Users who are consumers may try to reach out-of-court resolution of any NETGO disputes before the Permanent Consumer Mediation Court at the Provincial Inspector of Trade Inspection in Katowice (Stały Polubowny Sąd Konsumentcki przy Wojewódzkim Inspektorze Inspekcji Handlowej w Katowicach).
 8. Consumer disputes regarding services provided online within the European Union may also be resolved through the ODR platform at <https://ec.europa.eu/consumers/odr>.
 9. The User may obtain free assistance in resolving a dispute with NETGO, also using the gratuitous help of the powiat (municipal) consumer ombudsman or a social organization, whose statutory tasks include consumer protection (including the Consumer Federation, Association of Polish Consumers – Federacja Konsumentów, Stowarzyszenie Konsumentów Polskich) <http://www.katowice.wiih.gov.pl/p,64,polubowny-sad-konsumentcki>. Necessary information on the method of settling disputes can be found on the website <http://www.uokik.gov.pl>, under the tab "Settlement of consumer disputes"
